FACTS ABOUT U. S. MONEY

EXCHANGE OF MUTILATED PAPER CURRENCY

Lawfully held paper currency of the United States (including national bank notes and Federal Reserve bank notes in process of retirement and Federal Reserve notes) when not so mutilated that less than three-fifths of the original proportions remain, will be exchanged at its face amount. Such lawfully held paper currency, when so mutilated that less than three-fifths but clearly more than two-fifths of the original proportions remain, is exchangeable only by the Treasurer of the United States, at one-half the face amount of the whole note or certificate: Provided, however, that it may be exchanged at face amount upon compliance with the provisions of the following paragraph. Fragments not clearly more than two-fifths are not exchangeable, unless accompanied by the evidence required in the following paragraph.

Fragments less than three-fifths, when identifiable as to denomination, kind, and genuineness, are exchangeable at the face amount of the whole note, only by the Treasurer of the United States, when accompanied by due satisfactory proof that the missing portions have been totally destroyed. This proof should be in the form of an affidavit from the owner setting forth that he is the owner and the cause and manner of destruction. If, however, the owner cannot of his own knowledge swear to the facts as to destruction, an affidavit or affidavits from any other person or persons having knowledge of the facts will also be required.

Charred fragments which can be identifiable may be redeemable, but ashes are worthless for redemption purposes.

Freak Coins

Charles Hadley, Jr., 5 Parker Avenue, Westfield, Mass. reports finding 4 freak cents, 2—1945 P, 1—1941, and 1—1944, with top and bottom sections missing in shape of part circle. Also some 1943 Cents with a very weak 4 strike.

Editor's Note: — These freak items have been turning up quite frequently when large quantities are minted.

1955 P CENT

(16) Double shift 1955 P cents were found by Walter Siegel of Rego Park, N. Y. while checking through some rolls.

FLASH

Here is our first photo cut, since the Flying Eaglet was published last May. We hope to have many more. How many of these cents did you find?

Of the 1955P Cent double impression of the lettering and date, over 300,000,000 pieces were minted at the Philadelphia Mint. You may still find one yet, and you don't need a glass to see the double date!

Something To Think About

I am wondering what the story is about the silver dollars mainly 1880 cc, 1881 cc, 1885 cc and a few others on the past few years one seldom has seen any for sale, or in auctions in v.f. or better. If you happen to have any you could get a good price for it or nice trade deal. The catalog prices are still quite high for these (3) pieces yet they are offered for sale or trade by many dealers and collectors for less than one-quarter of their catalog prices. In brill. unc. condition. If after 75 years of storage let's say they are put out for circulation I would think collectors and dealers would buy them all up at those low prices considering the market prices for coins, only less than 10 yrs. old with a mintage of approx. 14,000,000 and more and yet the mint total combined of these (3) silver dollars totals a little over 1,000-000 pieces. Think about it for a few minutes. If you know the

NOTES FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

Attending the monthly meeting of the New Jersey Numismatic Society on Thursday, February 9, 1956, I found it to be interesting and enjoyable. The regular meeting place being the Military Park Hotel here in Newark.

Presiding officers were the President, Mr. Arthur Mershon, Vice Pres., Mr. Anton C. Mayer, and Treasurer, Mr. Lewis O. Goodman.

The members displayed some unique and rare material, Mr. Blaisdell's display included a 1804 large cent, one of the finest known, with two silver pieces of the 16th Century recently discovered along the Bermuda Beach. Mr. Rice showed a 1956 Proof Set hot off the press. Mr. James Brown displayed a variety of Roman coins. Mrs. Habernickel displayed over 20 pieces of gold coin jewelry. Mr. William Anton displayed two scarce $50.00 early notes. Mr. Mayer displayed unique engraved photographs of Presidents Washington, Lincoln, Mckinley, and Bejamin Franklin, with their signatures. Other displays included assortments of: large cents, gold coins with a beautiful 20,000 reis gold piece. I displayed a 1955 plain overdate and lettering Lincoln Cent and a 1939 S Jefferson Nickel with the missing porch. The meeting ended at 10 p. m.

answer I'd be happy to hear about it. In my opinion I think it would be wise for speculators and collectors to acquire some of these pieces while they're at a low price at a few dollars over face value. One thing you can be sure of, it's worth at least a dollar.

GRADING STANDARD

PROOF—Coin, a mirror-like finish, especially struck for collectors on polished metal blanks and struck by slower hydraulic press to obtain best feature lines.

UNCIRCULATED—Made for general circulation when minted but never reaches circulation. Has a mint lustre, no scratches, rubbings or mars.

EXTRA FINE & A. U.—about same. Coin is about uncirculated, slightly worn on high points and may have some mint lustre.

V. FINE—Has been circulated but all features and lettering are sharp.

FINE—Has all features and lettering but not sharp.

V. G.—Has border rims most features and lines visable.

GOOD—All features and lines worn but visable.

FAIR—Considerably worn.

POOR—Considerably worn smooth, or corroded, good only as space filler.

This grading is used nly as a guide to help you and is a general medium usad by all dealers and collectors in the Numismatic field.

FOR BEGINNERS who are just starting to collect, here are a few suggestions and some advice. First, a coin guide boo is a must. They can be purchased for $1.00 or more from most coin dealers. This book has helpful information: on care, condition, value, amount minted, types, how coins are made, and other news of help and interest. Most coins can be found in circulation. As you are making your set always try to improve the worn coins. Value of coins depends greatly on the condition. Never clean or polish coins unless you are experienced. If you must try, use a common date coin. There are handy cleaning kits available for this purpose. Coin inserts folders and other supplies can be obtained at your dealer. You may also notice that the age of old coins do not make them rare. There are some late date coins minted that are worth more than some hundreds of years old. What makes one coin worth more than another are by these factors: Amount of coins minted, availability, collectors demand and any unusual die strikes. Coins can be obtained through purchases, by auctions or trading with collectors. Mint sets can be bought by writing the Treasury Dept., U. S. Office of Treasurer, Washington 25, D. C., at face value, plus postage and handling. To obtain Proof Sets of current year sent $2.10 money order to Supt. Phila. Mint 16th and Spring Garden Streets, Philadelphia, Pa. You may order as many sets as you wish. Commemorative half dollars are authorized periodically by Congress. These halves when issued are not sold by the mints, they are turned over to a Commission authorized by Congress at face value. The Commission then sells the halves at a premium. The average price of most Commemoratives have been from $1.00 to $1.50 each.

Bergen County Coin Club

The Bergen County Coin Club held their monthly meeting at their permanent quarters at the fire house No. 2 at Ackerson st. & Kinderkamack rd., River Edge, N. J.

Being a guest, of the club president William T. Anton, I was introduced to the attending members, and was made to feel at home.

Of the 52 members of the roster about 40 were present, with five new members being sponsored, the club is continuously growing.

I was pleased to meet a few of our Flying Eaglet subscribing members there. Although I arrived late, did see some nice displays of Canadian proofsets, some rare paper currency, and other U. S. type sets. Present also were some members of the West Bronx and Stamp Club of New York.

Proposed for the next meeting, the 3rd Wednesday of each month, members were invited to participate in a coin auction, to bid or sell. If you're a collector and are in the vicinity, stop in and attend the meeting, one and all are cordially invited.

Canadian Silver Dollars

by Mrs. Jack Marles

One of the most popular series of Canadian coins are the silver dollars. Possibly one of the reasons for its popularity is the attractiveness of the designs. There are three basic obverse types with the heads of the reigning monarchs being featured: King George V (1935-1936), King George VI (1937-1952), and Queen Elizabeth II (1953-1955). The reverse designs include the centre block of the federal government parliament buildings on the 1939 dollar, commemorating the visit of King George VI and Queen Elizabeth (now the Queen Mother); the "Mathew," the ship of the explorer John Cabot, depicted on the 1949 dollar to commemorate the entry of Newfoundland into Confederation during that year as the tenth Canadian province; and the scene depicted on all other years, namely that of French-Canadian voyagers, paddling a canoe.

Possibly another reason for the popularity of the Canadian silver dollars amongst collectors is the relatively low cost at which a complete series may be obtained. There are 19 recognized varieties in all, minted in the years 1935 to 1939 and again from 1945 to date. Catalogue value of the entire series possibly reflects general current underpricing of Canadian coins in that it totals only $103.00 in uncirculated condition.

The silver dollars have been minted in comparatively small quantities ranging from a low of 18,780 to a high of 1,363,816. Although these coins are not generally used in ordinary circulation, they are in demand for souvenirs, presentations and gifts. It is interesting to note that the first silver dollar was struck in 1935 to commemorate the twenty-fifth year of the reign of King George V (Silver Jubilee). While it was not the original intention of the Canadian government to produce silver dollars in subsequent years, the silver dollar's popularity resulted in a decision to continue striking these highly attractive coins.

The Rare 1804 Silver Dollar

One of the most publicized and much discussed piece of silver. Mint records show 19,570 Silver Dollars were coined in 1804, but there are only 13 specimens known; six being of type 1 and 7 of type 2. There have been different versions of the whereabouts of the others and of the die. This subject will continue to be a mystery with much controversy. It has been known that one of the pieces sold for $10,000. Do you have one?????
